

CHIEF MASS COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST
(SURFACE WARFARE/AIR WARFARE/ SEABEE COMBAT WARFARE)
STEVEN PATRICK BANSBACH
UNITED STATES NAVY

A native of St. Louis, MO, Chief Bansbach entered the U.S. Navy November, 1995 and graduated from DINFOS in August 1996. Chief Bansbach reported to DINFOS on July 29, 2009.

Chief Bansbach's previous duty assignments include: USS NASSAU (LHA-4), participating in Operations SILVER WAKE, GUARDIAN RETRIEVAL, and ALLIED FORCE; Naval Media Center Broadcast Detachment Sigonella, Sicily; Naval Reserve Readiness Command Northeast, Newport Rhode Island; and Naval Mobile Construction Battalion (NMCB) FOUR, deploying two times in support of humanitarian efforts around the world.

Chief Bansbach has an Associate's Degree in Video and Radio Production from New England Technical College and a Bachelor's Degree in Mass Communications from Thomas Edison State College. He is authorized to wear the Enlisted Surface Warfare Insignia, the Enlisted Air Warfare Insignia, the Seabee Combat Warfare Insignia, the Navy Commendation Medal the Army Commendation Medal, the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the Navy Good Conduct Medal(3) and various service awards.

Chief Bansbach is married to the former Stacie Allison Bruns of St. Louis, MO. He and his wife reside on post where they are raising their two children, Alexander and Sabrina.