

MCCS(SW) Joe Clark
Expeditionary Combat Camera, Norfolk

Senior Chief Clark, a native of Hope Mills, N.C., joined the Navy in March 1992. He attended JO "A" school at the Defense Information School, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Indiana, the same year. He served in broadcasting roles on board USS JOHN C. STENNIS (CVN 74) and while at Fleet Support Detachments in Pearl Harbor and Bahrain. He also was the officer in charge at American Forces Networks in Diego Garcia and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Senior Chief Clark is currently stationed with Expeditionary Combat Camera as Operations' leading chief petty officer in Norfolk, Va.