

Mass Communication Specialist 2nd Class (SW/AW) Rosalie Garcia

SURFPAC Public Affairs Office Leading Petty Officer

United States Navy

Petty Officer Garcia's joined the United States Navy, Jan. 23, 2006 as a Lithographer and her first shore assignment was to Naval Media Center, Broadcast Detachment in Misawa, Japan. She did over two years of radio broadcast, producing daily newscast, commercials and ran a daily-4 hr radio show .

Her sea duty tour includes USS Ronald Reagan (CVN 76) from Dec. 2008 to Dec. 2011. She completed two Western Pacific deployments and a Rim of the Pacific exercise. She earned her Surface Warfare and Aviation Warfare pins during her second deployment.

Garcia transferred to Naval Surface Force, U.S. Pacific Fleet in Jan. 2012 where she currently serves as the SURFPAC Public Affairs Office Leading Petty Officer.

Her personal awards include one Joint Service Achievement Medal, three Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal, one Good Conduct Award and various service and campaign awards.

Contact information: Rosalie.garcia@navy.mil or at Office phone: 619-437-2735