

MC2 Derric Cushman

Naval Support Activity Bahrain Public Affairs

Derric Cushman was born March 15, 1979 in Aiken, SC.

He graduated from Clarke Central high school in Athens, GA in 1998 and then went on to Benedict College in Columbia, SC for two years. In 2006, Cushman transferred to UNC Charlotte where he graduated with a degree in Communications. Before joining the Navy in October 2009, Cushman worked for a public relations agency in South Carolina among various other jobs. After training at the Defense Information School, Cushman went to American Forces Network Rota, Spain where he produced content for television and radio. AFN Rota won a total of 13 CHINFO Media Awards during his tenure there.