

Nate Quinn
DoD Civilian Illustrator
Defense Media Activity

Designing graphics and animations for the Navy for 8-and-a-half years, Nate got started in computer graphics in high school. After three years of specialized graphics classes in high school, Nate went on to get a Bachelor's Degree in Media Arts and Animation from the Art Institute of Washington in 2005.

In his current position he has played a key role communicating the Navy message through visuals. He designed several command logos, including the logo for the Defense Media Activity, and continues to provide visuals and expertise in Adobe Photoshop and After Effects. Nate is a civilian working at the Defense Media Activity as an illustrator in the Navy Art Department.
