

Mass Communications Specialist 2nd Class (SW/AW) David Finley, a native of Quanah, Texas, joined the Navy in August 2008. After completing boot camp in Great Lakes, Ill., he attended the Defense Information School in Fort Meade, Md.

Upon graduation, Finley was transferred to USS Harry S. Truman (CVN75) where he was responsible for the acquisition, production and distribution of media products in support of historical documentation, investigation, intelligence and public affairs events. There he advanced to petty officer second class, and earned his surface and air warfare pins.

January 2012, Finley reported to U.S. Fleet Cyber Command/ U.S. TENTH Fleet (FCC/C10F) located at Fort Meade, Md. He currently serves as the deputy public affairs officer at FCC/C10F.

Finley has been awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal.