

SONYA MOORE

UNITED STATES NAVY

---

Sonya Moore, United States Navy Retired entered Naval service in February 1988. She completed basic training at Recruit Training Command Orlando, Florida. After basic training she attended Photographer's Mate "A" School in Pensacola, Florida. Moore graduated PH "A" School and was assigned to VP- 46 Naval Air Station Moffett Field, CA. PH3 Moore transferred to Navy Broadcasting, Washington, DC as a videographer. While stationed there she was selected to attend Syracuse Motion Media Studies Program. After Syracuse Moore was assigned to Combat Camera as a videographer and photojournalist where she deployed globally over her 48 month tour. PH1(AW) was then selected for instructor duty at Defense Information School (DINFOS), Fort Meade, MD, where she became a Master Training Specialist. Moore then reported to USS Theodore Roosevelt CVN-71 as Leading Petty Officer for X2 division and selected as Chief Petty Officer during this tour. MCC (AW/SW) Moore reported to Naval Activity Millington, Tennessee to serve as a Mass Communication Specialist Detailer for her last tour of duty. Retired November 2010, Moore transitioned into civilian life as a Basic Mass Communication Specialist Instructor at DINFOS.