

United States Navy
Biography →

MC1 (SW/AW) Amanda M. Dunford
United States Navy

Amanda Dunford entered the Navy in December 2004 and completed basic recruit training in Great Lakes, Ill. Dunford attended DINFOS Photographer's Mate "A" School in 2005 and reported to USS Nassau, home ported in Norfolk, Va., she completed two deployments and a disaster relief and response in Galveston, Texas due to Hurricane Ike.

Dunford was capped to Mass Communication Specialist Third Class in December 2006 and was promoted to Mass Communication Specialist Second Class June 2007.

Dunford completed the Digital Multimedia Course "C" School in 2007 and reported to AFN Souda Bay, Crete in 2010.

Reporting for shore duty, Dunford was assigned to U.S. Joint Forces Command in Norfolk, Va. until it's disestablishment in August 2011.

Petty Officer Dunford reported to U.S. Pacific Fleet in October 2011 and was promoted to Mass Communication Specialist First Class in 2012.

Petty Officer Dunford's personal awards include the Joint Service Achievement Medal, Navy Achievement Medals, and multiple service awards.